Aims and objectives of the workshop

Questioning the reality of sexes has been as old as the human civilization. Women! women's issues, women and sexual inequality stumbling through existence, pushed in various directions women battle life and challenge deep rooted pre-conceived notions about the path their lives should take.

This workshop on Gender Sensitization intends to raise certain issues:

- Should a woman has to follow a straight jacketed existence to live with dignity?

- Doesn't a woman deserve to be at ease with her sexuality, femininity, female and live fearlessly with free will and freedom?
- Isn't it responsibility of society to make sure that gender justice prevails?
- Shouldn't light of gender sensitization enter and spread fragrance of justice in the milieu?
- We need not believe in fate nor in miracles but the act and gestures, measures steps taken by policy maker sitting at the apex matter a lot.
- How true are Maya Angelou's words, "A wise woman refuses to be anyone's victim' How the new age women even let this happen to her?

This workshop aims to explore and elucidate these issues.
